DETAILED ACTION

This Office action is responsive to communication received 06/22/2001 – Drawings.

Claims 1-3 are pending.

Following is an action on the MERITS:

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Chuang. Reference is made to col. 1, line 66 through col. 2, line 33, wherein Chuang exactly discloses a front recess provided to the rear of the striking face portion within a golf club head. The head in Chuang includes a face plate having dented portions around its periphery and a shock absorbing material affixed in a double-deck layer. As to applicant's claim 2, the shock absorbing material is disclosed as thermoplastic (see claim 2 in Chuang). As to applicant's claim 3, Chuang notes that the shock absorbing material is rubber (see claim 3 in Chuang). Figures 4-9 in Chuang clearly and without question collectively show all of the applicant's claimed features.

New corrected drawings are required in this application because that which is depicted by the drawings submitted on 06/22/2001 is not commensurate with that which is described in the specification. In other words, the 06/22/2001 drawings do not at all show what is being described and claimed. It would appear that, perhaps through inadvertent error, the incorrect drawings have been submitted for this pending application. The corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The requirement for corrected drawings will not be held in abeyance.

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, all of the claimed features must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. See Figure 3 in Barnhart. Note filler (30) in Rogers. See Figure 8 in Fetterolf. Allen shows a striking face of interest. See cushion (60) in Campau. Gee shows a through-hole of interest. Note absorption member (38) in Biafore. Hsu shows a filler material (4). Igarashi shows a foam (70) of interest. Aizawa ('383) and Mimeur show damping properties for club heads. See Figure 2 in Aizawa ('397). Note Figures 2 and 2A in Gallagher. Biafore and Liu show absorption materials, of interest. Hettinger and Kitaichi show striking face plate arrangements, of interest.
